dry, is spending the day in New York.

Mrs. Rebinson returned yesterday from a two weeks' visit to Fall River,

Prof. Saunders has begun to move his household effects into the Porter building, opposite the town house The little pond which gathered about the public fountain in front of the Kinsella block on Tuesday, and which was said to give the children such visions of wet feet and skating next win-ter, had quite disappeared yesterday. A few autumn leaves which obstruct-ed a drain pipe, was the cause of the Rubber factory out of power a few weeks ago. The steam chest of the engine biew up, and it is stated work will have to be suspended for a week or two. The engine was a small one, and beyond disabling the machine no other serious damage was done.

John McGrath, who is playing at Poli's under the name of Mr. Force, is a native of this town, where he was brought up, and is widely known. Many of his friends have been over to see him on the stage and hear him sing.

Alfred Perry has offered to donate the use of his hall for the firemen's ball which will be given next month. Mill's Bridgeport orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music. The tickets and posters will be out next ing straightened and new posts put in

Mrs. Patrick Carroll is reported to be on the sick list.

Miss Frances Wakeman from Ohio has been visiting in town.

Saturday afternoon a little grand-daughter of Harry Flint had a birthday party at her grandfather's house.

Saturday evening next Miss Rachel Pickett, daughter of our popular postmaster, proposes to have an All Hallowe'en party for the Shakespearlan Ten Club.

STRATFORD

Among the clergymen who will be in town next Monday in season to attend the public reception which is to be given at the chapel of the Congregational church at 5:30 p.m., in connection with the semi-centennial anniversary celebration, are Rev. Cyrus F. Stimson of Waterville, Me.; Rev. Joel S. Ives; Rev. Samuel Howard Dana, D. D., of Exeter, N. H.; and Rev. George M. Judson of Winsted. The public is cordially invited to at-

Dana, D. D., of Exeter, N. H.; and Rev. George M. Judson of Winsted. The public is cordially invited to attend this reception. The invitation banquet will be held the same evening at Red Men's hall, when Judge Howard J. Curtls will preside and a number of addresses will be made. Sinday evening at the church the papers prepared by Mrs. Bunnell. "The Five Meeting Houses", and by Mrs. Dr. Cogswell, "The Greater Sunday School", will be read.

Miss Houghton's symnasium class now numbers about 10 pupils.

Householders who contemplate starting up a fire in an open grate or fire-place should send word before hand to the fire department, thus saving a needless alarm, and much excitement in the business section of the town.

Kenneth Peck and the young gentlemen who went to Guilford with him. Ray Alvord, Walter Hanford, and Ruben Townroe, on a duck hunting expedition, were uncommonly successful, capturing no less than 50 birds. The result is many of our townsfolk have been dining off of duck.

Yesterday afternoon a very enjoyable sewing circle met at Mrs. Beards on Button avenue on Sutton avenue

Mr. Perry, who suffered a broken ankle a few weeks ago, was able yesterday, with the aid of crutches, to take a walk to the center of the town. It is now thought the thieves who plundered Mr. Beardsley's store, took advantage of the excitement caused by the open grate fire at the Lewis residence to break in and steal.

The appual fair at the Methodist

The annual fair at the Methodist

The annual fair at the Methodist church will take place on the 19th of November.

William Bennetto will again connect himself with the U. S. Navy.

Mrs. George Chavell. Jr., has presented her husband with a son.

Mrs. Frederick Rives is recovering from a recent illness.

The good people of this quiet and ancient town should never get so "excited" because the fire bell rings when some housewife lights an open grate, as to all run off after the chemical and leave the business part of the village unprotected. That is the very time the sneak thief gets in his fine work, and when the shop keepers open up the acxt morning they find goods missing. The burglars who broke into Mr. Beardsley's store did not do much runmaging. They opened but one case, took out the rocket knives and rezors, and decamped. There are a great many other things which might have been taken. There was a rumor that the stove had gone, and fears were expressed that the Stove Club would have to disband. But this proved to be a canard.

Club would have to disband. But this proved to be a canard.

The funeral of George O. Lines was held this afternoon at Columbus Farms, Rev. Gerald H. Beard of Bridgeport officiating. The pall bearers were Sheriff Stagg, Frederick Wilcoxson, Edward Blakeslee, George Peck, George Windsor and Edward H. Hurd, the three last named being from Bridgeport.

Bridgeport. It is said the harvest whist held the time which it used to take. The A Manx cat has caught the canary bird which was on exhibition, and eaten it up.

Sheriff Stagg thinks he will go to the races next Saturday on Long Is-land. He will take his automobile over on a boat.

NEWTOWN

It will hardly be necessary to remind he public of the High School Misses' ntertainment next Friday evening at the town hall, as all the tickets sent out have sold surprisingly quick, therefore a crowded house and a very enjoyable evening is assured.

Mrs. Polly Taylor, widow of William Taylor, died at the home of her daughter Tuesday night. Mrs. Taylor's death had been momentarily expected for some months, she having been suffered with a heart affection. been a sufferer with a heart affection, and at her advanced age does not come as a surprise. Miss Mary Houllhan has returned from a few days' visit in Danbury.

Miss Anna Campbell of Bridgeport, is the cuest of Mr. and Mrs. P. Campbell, Sandy Hook.

Work on the new dam at the Rubber factory was completed this week.

The Hallowe'en whist for the benefit of the Beach Memorial Library, held

The fence lines at the depot are be-at the library rooms Tuesday, was a very pretty and successful affair. The decorations which were in keeping decorations which were in keeping with the season were unique and attractive, many pretty shaped gourds and jack-o-lanterns, various colored autumn leaves, apples, etc., being used with fine effect. Brownies and spooks; were the assistants and ushers, the former being impersonated by Masters Harold Ray, Robert Tiemann, Gordon Gale, Arthur Ferris, and the latter were Misses Anna Carlson, Mary Keating Dorette Gordon and Gardiner H. Gale. Arthur Ferris, and the latter were Misses Anna Carlson, Mary Keating, Dorette Gordon, and Gardiner H. Walker. Before the game of whist was begun "Sinding's Marche Grotesque" was rendered on the plane by Miss Dorette Gordon, while two Brownies stood on either side with lighted candles, and in the dimly lighted room the spooks glided about. Fifteen tables were occupied and the winners of the prizes were as follows: 1st ladies', Mrs. Wallace N. Mitchell, silver belt pln; 2d ladies', Mrs. Janice Mathiason, fancy dish; 3d ladies', Mrs. Henry Rupf, fancy dish; 1st gent's, Curtis Glover, jar; 2d gent's, William Hawley, box cigars; ladies' consolation, Mrs. Laura Leonard, box perfume; gent's consolation, O. B. Beard, ash receiver. Delicious coffee and home made crullers were served and about 116 realized for the library fund.

The following were issued October 26th, 1909. List furnished from office of A. M. Wooster, solicitor of patents, Bridgeport, Conn.

GRANTED BY RABBI
Waterbury, Oct. 28.—The chief rabbi of New York city was granted a Jewish divorce to Mrs. Joseph Lifshitz of Bishop street from her former husband, Hyman Freedman, also of this city. Mrs. Lifshitz secured a divorce from Mr. Freedman in the superior court several weeks ago, but the Hebrews would not recognize her as a divorced woman unless the decree of separation was issued by the chief rabbi of New York city, who is the recognized authority.

Naples soon will be lighted by elec-tricity produced by a water power plant 56 mfles away.

It is said the harvest whist held Tuesday evening was very enjoyable. Little Frances Moran, 12 years old, has had a surprise on her birthday. A whole lot of little boys and girls passed a very enjoyable evening.

Those who fail to see "Still Water Run Deep" tonight will miss the event of their life. It is a fine opportunity to see home talent disport on the stage, and possibly to get a peep behind the scenes.

The gutters on Long Brook avenue have been cleaned up ready for winter and now that fashionable thoroughfare smiles at the rest of the streets in town.

A man in town has got a new fangled plow which does the work of two. With it he can plow a field in haif of month.
